NEW AGE MOVEMENT UNITES ENGLISH AND FRENCH FREEMASONRY

The government of the O.T.O. . . combines monarchy with democracy; it includes aristocracy, and conceals even the seeds of revolution, by which alone progress can be effected. Thus we balance the Triads, uniting the Three in One....

Book of Equinox

When the hierarchy of the Templar Palladium failed to unite permanently the three Masonic obediences, it was Sion's turn. Miller confirms the story told in the Book of Equinox, of which a portion is cited above. The word "monarchy" refers to English Freemasonry; "democracy" represents both French and American Freemasonry; and "uniting the Three in One" alludes to all three Masonic obediences.

All three must come to agreement both religiously and politically if world government is to be a reality. However, unity among contradictory religious organizations is impossible. Likewise, unity among opposing political viewpoints is unrealistic. The war between English and French Freemasonry turns on differences of opinion on both these issues. The conflict? Which religious and political system will eventually rule the New World Order?

Atheistic Templar Grand Orient Masonry desired a dictatorship of the proletariat - the lower class - with communism guaranteeing equal distribution of wealth. While awaiting the fruition of this dream, the Grand Orient encouraged laborers to form unions and, with the might of worker strikes, gain their share of the wealth. With this ideology, French Freemasonry was thus able to win the lower classes.

In contrast, Pantheistic Sionist English Freemasonry, whose sovereigns shared power with an elected parliament, desired a New World Order dominated by an aristocracy. For two centuries English Freemasons had kept their society aristocratic, capitalistic, and monopolistic. They had dismissed and forgotten the common laborer, losing him politically to their adversary.

To remedy this divisive stalemate, English Freemasonry attacked the problem by creating dual fronts where commonality could be predicated. First they established political-economic fronts, called "think tanks," where the intelligentsia from both sides of the Channel could discuss a coefficient for politics.² Second they created mystic front organizations intended to appeal to and gratify man's baser instincts, and thus reach and destabilize all levels of society.

English Freemasonry assigned the latter task to the Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Masonic Research, which, as we have seen, in turn developed a variety of degenerate sub-Masonic fronts known as co-Masonry.³

To win the confidence of the French atheists who believed that individuals were endowed with equal, inalienable rights founded upon natural law, the English expanded the concept of natural law to include mythological law.⁴ The Quatuor Coronati Lodge discovered that pagan religions, in harmony with their cyclical world outlook, had long ago interwoven into their political society mythological law, through which they maintained control of the populace. The dominant figure in these prevailing myths was usually a goddess who symbolized "Mother Earth" and who thus provided the basis for an ideology that man and earth were one.⁵

Pagan religions taught that Mother Earth required the continuation of creation through procreation, with periodic demands for population control. These myths were carefully cultivated and applied by a designated caste of priests, who designed licentious rituals in their worship as a sacrament to Mother Earth. These rituals, of course, appealed to the base nature of man. Therefore, these mythologies, created by man, became mythological law.

In this religion Mother Earth could become "angry." When she did so it meant that man was multiplying too rapidly. To appease the mother goddess, mythological law demanded human sacrifices, usually of the very young. Paul deParrie, in Unholy Sacrifices of the New Age, says, "Whether known as Kali (the many-armed Hindu goddess Kali, who wears for a necklace a chain of human skulls), Diana, Isis, or Astarte, Mother Earth or her dark mirror image consistently required blood as an appropriate offering; she who created (or procreated) also destroyed and devoured her own young in bloody ritual."⁶

The purpose of the sacrifice was to "save the earth." Nigel Davies, in Human Sacrifice in History and Today, confirms: "Both sacrificer and victim knew that the act was required, to save the people from calamity and the cosmos from collapse. Their object was, therefore, more to preserve than to destroy life."⁷

Mythological law required mothers to willingly give up their children to the flame or to the knife. With the Arioi in Tahiti, "status was based entirely on one's devotion to killing one's own children."⁸ The North American and Mexican Indians "both stressed the belief that the victim would profit from his own sacrifice, thus allowing the executioner to feel no guilt and denying the victim the opportunity to protest his own sacrifice."⁹ Thus, legalized murder became a part of Mother Earth's mythological law of population control.

The Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Masonic Research set out to apply mythological law to present-day Masonic work. In the same manner in which a designated caste of priests had in ancient times designed rituals of human destruction to appease both Mother Earth and degenerate man, the 33rd degree hierarchy of both English and French Freemasonry (Masons who had already delved into witchcraft), duplicated the system for their budding mystic fronts. By catering to the baser instincts of man, the two Freemasonries found it a simple task to unite under a political system that permitted the free exercise of mythological law.

Diametrically opposed to the Judeo-Christian teaching, it should be no surprise that these sub-Masonic societies became anti-Semitic and anti-Christian. Today they are known as white supremacists. Their plan to "save the earth" through a process of earth purification was, and still is, to annihilate the dark-skinned races, which include the Jews. From this ideology was born the Nazi movement. The homicidal O.T.O. and Thule Society played the most significant role in grooming Hitler for power. The Order of the Golden Dawn became the connecting link between the German branch of the OTO-Thule and English Freemasonry.¹⁰

When English Freemasonry agreed to cooperate with French Freemasonry, the paltry Grand Orient was no match for the suave and wealthy Whore of Babylon at London. Hence, the French method of destruction by brute force was set aside for a more acceptable approach. English Freemasonry planned for a gradual and more scientific depopulation of earth.

During the 1920s and 1930s, British conspiracy researchers realized that the destructive doctrines of French Freemasonry had crossed the English Channel. Several revisionists set out to warn English Freemasonry of what they perceived was penetration by the Grand Orient. They had not yet discovered that the hierarchy in both Freemasonries had united in the Ordo Templi Orientis in 1905.

So secret was the O.T.O. that the majority of Masons are still unaware of its existence today. Yet, this Order is documented as the most evil of Freemasonry, executing the destructive bidding of the hierarchy on a grand scale.¹¹ Its creed is "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law." Its rituals include the use of mind-altering drugs and human sacrifice.

The Priory of Sion and Witchcraft

Claude Debussy, Grand Master of Sion (GM 1885-1918), was intimate with the English Freemasons who founded the Order of the Golden Dawn, which in turn produced the O.T.O. and Thule Society. He was especially close to Dr. Gerard Encausse (Papus), Grand Master of four Rosicrucian orders in France - Martin, Memphis, Mizraim, and the O.T.O.¹² At the behest of Debussy, Papus took Martinism and the O.T.O. to Russia to prepare for the destruction of that Christian nation.¹³

Miller lists the following Masons who were involved in the 19th Century revival of witchcraft, which led to founding the O.T.O.: Wolfgang von Goethe (1749-1832), Eliphas Levi (1810-1875), Richard Wagner (1813-1890), Hargrave Jennings (1817-1890), Friedrich Nietzsche (1844- 1900), Franz Hartmann (1838-1912), Cardinal Rampolla (1843-1913), Papus (Dr. Encausse 1865-1916), and Karl Kellner (-1905), cofounder (with Theodore Reuss) of the O.T.O.¹⁴

Goethe, Levi, Wagner, and Papus are listed in Holy Blood, Holy Grail as also being connected to the Priory of Sion. The others were Rosicrucian Masons. Kellner was also a Grand Orient Mason, as was Reuss.

In 1895 the Quatuor Coronati Lodge of Masonic Research shared with Karl Kellner its discovery that pagans had controlled population through human sacrifice. When Kellner informed the German Grand Orient and Grand Lodge hierarchy of this, Friedrich Nietzsche commented, "The 20th Century will be the bloodiest on earth."

In 1902 Kellner organized the homicidal Ordo Templi Orientis and began initiating Freemasons on both sides of the Channel. The original members of the O.T.O. were German Grand Orient Theodore Reuss; and English Masons John Yarker (1833-1913), William Wynn Westcott (1848-1925), and MacGregor Mathers. All but Mathers held the 33rd degree.¹⁵

Theodore Reuss became head of the O.T.O. upon Kellner's death in 1905. In 1902 Reuss had already named Westcott regent of the O.T.O. in England, thus establishing the interlocking directorate between English and Continental Freemasonry.¹⁶ In 1912 Reuss initiated Aleister Crowley into the O.T.O. By the time World War I had started, Crowley, a member of both English and French Freemasonry, was at the head of the British branch of the O.T.O.

The O.T.O. drew membership from a wide range of occult organizations: the Gnostic Catholic Church; the Order of the Knights of the Holy Ghost; the Order of the Illuminati; the Order of the Knights of St. John; the Order of the Knights of Malta; the Order of the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre; the Hermetic Brotherhood of Light; the Holy Order of Rose Croix of Heredom; the Order of the Holy Royal Arch of Enoch; the Order of the Knights Templar; the Hidden Church of the Holy Grail; the Ancient and Primitive Rite of Masonry; the Rite of Memphis; the Rite of Mizraim; the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Masonry; the Swedenborgian Rite of Masonry; the Order of the Martinists; the Order of Sat Bhai; and many other orders of equal merit, or of less fame.¹⁷

What is most significant about these organizations is that they are recognized as a mixture of Knights Templar and Priory of Sion secret societies.¹⁸ As suggested in the Book of Equinox, Scarlet and the Beast, for a time at least, united in the Ordo Templi Orientis.

The Oriental Templars operated in the same manner as did Albert Pike's Palladian Templars. Although the O.T.O. incorporated the Templar aura by name, it was not a Templar creation; rather it was Sion's link to the international network of secret societies. Unlike the Palladian, which recruited from only the Templar orders, the O.T.O. recruited from all occult bodies throughout the ~ This network was controlled by the Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of the 33rd Degree in both obediences, who were periodically required to tour and inspect the O.T.O. Lodges.²⁰

The O.T.O. in America

The Ordo Templi Orientis was English Freemasonry's most effective psychological warfare unit. Its duties were twofold: (1) to unite all occult bodies under the Luciferian Doctrine; and (2) to destroy the Judeo-Christian culture worldwide with an onslaught of Satanism. The two Christian nations first targeted for destruction were Czarist Russia and the United States.

Maury Terry, an American investigative journalist, tells in The ultimate Evil how the O.T.O. got started in our country:

After internal dissension, elements of the Golden Dawn more or less merged into the Ordo Templi Orientis. Aleister Crowley won permission to head a British OTO branch, and the teachings of the OTO entered the United States with Crowley in 1916, during World War I in Europe.

Later, during World War II, Crowley helped establish an OTO lodge in Pasadena, California, and OTO branches subsequently sprouted in a number of U.S. cities, including New York and Houston. In effect, a loose network was formed and already functioning via occult shops and bookstores, newsletters, ads in the underground press and other methods....

In fact, many believe that the entire occult underground in America today can be traced back to the formation of that Crowley OTO operation in Pasadena.²¹

The Law of the Ordo Templi Orientis is "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law." "22 For the pleasure of its members, this "Law" was practiced to its fullest in brothels established throughout Europe and the United States. A segment of the Manifesto of the O.T.O. explains the meaning of that "Law":

[The O.T.O.] embodies the whole of the secret knowledge of all oriental Orders; and its chiefs are initiates of the highest rank, and recognized as such by all capable of such recognition in every country in the world.

The Order is international, and has existing branches in every civilized country of the world.

The aims of the O.T.O. can only be understood fully by its highest initiates; but it may be said openly that it teaches Hermetic Science or Occult Knowledge, the Pure and Holy Magick of Light, the Secrets of Mystic attainment, Yoga of all forms; Gnana Yoga, Raja Yoga, Bhakta Yoga and Hatha Yoga, and all other branches of the secret Wisdom of the Ancients.

It also possesses in every important centre of population a hidden Retreat (Collegium ad Spiritum Sanctum) where members may conceal themselves in order to pursue the Great Work without hindrance.

These houses are secret fortresses of Truth, Light, Power and Love, and their position is only disclosed under an oath of secrecy to those entitled to make use of them.

They are also temples of true worship, specially consecrated by Nature to bring out of a man all that is best in him.²³

Prior to, and during World War II, Pasadena, California, was the O.T.O.'s west coast headquarters in America, while Nyack, New York, was the center of its east coast operation.²⁴ More information is written about the O.T.O. brothel - one of the houses of "Truth, Light, Power and Love" referred to above - in Nyack than other locations. It was called Clarkstown Country Club (C.C.C.). At its head was Freemason Dr. Pierre Arnold Bernard (1875-1955), initiated into the O.T.O. in 1916 by Aleister Crowley himself, soon after Crowley arrived in the United States.

Bernard's occult library at the C.C.C. was the largest of its kind in America, consisting of an array of pornographic movies and literature, as well as the finest collection of Sanskrit lore. During its prosperous years, the 1930s, talks on the Veda, its writings and philosophy, were regularly given by Dr. Bernard. The C.C.C.'s promotional literature stated that "[t]he core of this subject [Veda] when reduced to practice is the Yoga System of Patanjali, a scientific scheme of mental and physical development evolved and recorded by the early Indo-Aryans.

Nowhere else in the world with the exception of a few places in India is this work to be found carried to such a degree of perfection."²⁵

Dr. Bernard was nicknamed "Oom," short for "Omnipotent." Women called him "Loving Guru." Often the women told him they felt the need to walk around him three times and then reach out and touch his "lotus."

The lotus flower of India is of course a phallic symbol. An Oom disciple once confided to an outsider:

Sex is discussed as naturally as hypnosis or reincarnation. Dr. Bernard believes that men and women can learn a lot about living by learning a lot about playing and loving. He teaches the Oriental view of love as opposed to the restrained Western idea. Love, in its physical aspects, is akin to music and poetry. It unites men and women with the infinite.²⁶

Both male and female members of the C.C.C. practiced the mystic Hindu art of Tantrik. A true Tantrik is a practitioner of Tantra, a ritualistic system in certain religions of the Orient. The rites are grossly licentious and are most often invoked in veneration of the Sakti, the Hindu goddesses of female energy.²⁷

When the C.C.C. went into decline and finally sold its property, paranormal activity began to manifest itself in several of its buildings. For example, part of the C.C.C. estate was purchased by the Christian and

Missionary Alliance, which is now the campus of Nyack College. Students who attended Nyack in the earlier years may recall the demonic activity in one of the buildings before exorcism.²⁸ Today, another dwelling, not associated with the College, but on the original C.C.C. estate, is still manifesting demonic activity. (See picture of house and brief story in Appendix 2, Fig. 31.)

The Pasadena and Nyack centers rapidly networked with other O.T.O. Lodges across North America. The O.T.O.'s publication, Duties of the Brethren, confirms the purpose of these retreats:

Special Profess-Houses for the care of women of the Order, or those whose husbands or lovers are members of the Order, will be instituted, so that the frontal duty of womankind may be carried out in all comfort and honour.²⁹

It is also probable that within this licentious Order, homosexual activity was practiced, for Duties of the Brethren also states:

Every Brother shall seek constantly to give pleasure to all Brethren with whom he is acquainted, whether by entertainment or conversation, or in any other manner that may suggest itself. It will frequently and naturally arise that love itself springs up between members of the Order, for that they have so many and so sacred interests in common. Such love is peculiarly holy, and is to be encouraged.³⁰

According to the O.T.O. Manifesto, the O.T.O. also provides "safe houses" for its criminal element:

Any injury done by any person without the Order to any person within it may be brought before the Grand Tribunal, which will, if it deem right and fit, use all its power to redress or to avenge it.

Public enemies of the country of any Brother shall be treated as such while in the field, and slain or captured as the officer of the Brother may command.

The perfect freedom and security afforded by the Law ["Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law"] allows the characters of all Brethren to expand to the very limits of their nature.

The secrecy of the Order provides its members with an inviolable shroud of concealment.

They obtain the right to sojourn in the secret houses of the O.T.O., permanently or for a greater or lesser period of the year according to their rank in the Order...³¹

The O.T.O. did not go into decline after Aleister Crowley's death in 1947. Maury Terry has discovered its network thriving stronger than ever in America, and connects it to the recent surge of Satanic ritual murders. Included in this network are the drug counterculture operatives, motor cycle gangs, common criminals and rock groups.

In Occult Theocracy, Miller explains that music is an essential tool in this conspiracy, because it renders an otherwise positive mind passive and negative. Miller states that occult music tends to induce confusion. Lyrics in rock music are prime examples. Minds that are confused will obey and bow to the hidden masters! A person who does not listen to this music, replacing it with uplifting activity, remains positive. A positive mind cannot be controlled.³²

You may recall that this brainwashing technique was first practiced by French Freemasonry prior to, and during, the French Revolution. Mozart's music, Mesmer's animal magnetism, and Cagliostro's drugs and witchcraft, are all examples of how the O.T.O. operates today.

The O.T.O. and the Church of Scientology

After Crowley's death, Freemason L. Ron Hubbard acquired the O.T.O. leadership in America. Robert Anton Wilson, co-author with Timothy Leary of Neuropolitics in 1977, explains that "Hubbard's system is derived largely from Aleister Crowley.... Hubbard was a member of Crowley's Ordo Templi Orientis in the 1940s; and Hubbard later... invented a system which seems, to those of us who know both, very similar to the system taught by Crowley in the O.T.O."³³

Hubbard was initiated into the O.T.O. in 1944 by Aleister Crowley himself. After Crowley's death, the O.T.O. was headquartered for a time in Hubbard's Church of Scientology. In 1992 The Auditor, the journal of Scientology, reports that there are 146 Scientology centers worldwide, with 54 of them in the United States and Canada alone.³⁴ Time Magazine, May 6, 1991, reports "700 centers in 65 countries...."³⁵

This greater number includes Scientology affiliates, many of which are front organizations. Time lists them, along with their frightening implications. Sterling Management Systems (SMS), formed in 1983, recruits dentists, chiropractors, podiatrists and veterinarians, guaranteeing them increased income if they attend seminars and take courses that typically cost $10,000. SMS's true aim is to hook these professionals for Scientology, who in turn will recruit their patients. Another such group, Citizens Commission on Human Rights, is at war with psychiatry, its primary competitor. The Commission typically issues reports aimed at discrediting particular psychiatrists and the field in general. HealthMed, a chain of clinics run by Scientologists, promotes a grueling and excessive system of saunas, exercise and vitamins designed by Hubbard to purify the body. It solicits unions and public agencies for contracts. Narconon is a chain of 33 alcohol and drug rehabilitation centers in twelve countries. Some of these centers operate in prisons under the name "Criminon." Both are classic vehicles for drawing addicts and cons into the cult. Concerned Businessmen's Association of America holds anti-drug contests and awards $5,000 grants to schools as a way to recruit students and curry favor with education officials. Way to Happiness Foundation has distributed more than 3.5 million copies of Hubbard's booklet on morality to children in thousands of the nation's public schools. Applied Scholastics is attempting to install a Hubbard tutorial program in public schools. The group also plans a 1,000-acre campus, where it will train educators to teach various Hubbard methods.³⁶

The title Church of Scientology is a deception. It is neither Christian nor scientific. Speaking to Hubbard's theology, Time says, "In the 1960s the guru decreed that humans are made of clusters of spirits [thetans] who were banished to earth some 75 million years ago by a cruel galactic ruler named Xenu."³⁷

In 1967 the Internal Revenue Service stripped the Church of Scientology of its tax-exempt status. The Masonic-dominated American Civil Liberties Union and the Masonic-created National Council of Churches supported Scientology's position that it is being "persecuted" by anti-religionists. Time countered by confirming that Scientologist defectors and critics are themselves continually persecuted by this so-called church. For example, L. Ron Hubbard taught his hierarchy how to use the law against its enemies. The law can be used very easily to harass," he said, "and enough harassment on somebody who is simply on the thin edge anyway.. will generally be sufficient to cause his professional decrease. If possible, of course, ruin him utterly."~ Another time Hubbard warned his followers in writing to "beware of attorneys who tell you not to sue.. the purpose of the suit is to harass and discourage rather than to win."³⁹ The legal goal of Scientology is to bankrupt the opposition or bury it under paper.

Time says that defectors and critics find themselves "engulfed in litigation, stalked by private eyes, framed for fictional crimes, beaten up or threatened with death." Time reports for example, that two defectors, one a common criminal, the other his hypnotist, were ordered killed by the Church. Oddly enough, the common criminal was to pull the trigger. He was ordered to kill the hypnotist, then do an "EOC," (end of cycle), which is church jargon for suicide.⁴⁰

Scientology Recruits for the O.T.O.

In 1967, the O.T.O. in England founded the Process Church of the Final Judgement soon after the rise of The Beatles rock group. In the late sixties and early seventies, the Process set up cells in a number of U.S. cities. Maury Terry says that the Process Church took over the O.T.O. in the United States. The Church of Scientology reverted to the position of Blavatsky's Theosophical Society a century earlier - that of a recruiting agency for the O.T.O. Terry said of Michael Carr, who, before his violent death was one of the leaders in the Process Church and a ranking Scientologist:

If he's counselling lost souls for Scientology, allegedly helping them discover themselves, he could certainly be working both sides of the street and plucking a few out for recruitment in the Satan stuff. That Scientology movement is fertile ground for latching onto confused people. He'd have his pick of candidates.⁴¹

The O.T.O. and Psychological Warfare

The counterculture, which today has permeated our whole society, provided and still provides recruits to the Church of Scientology which spots and selects the confused and drug addicted candidates for the homicidal O.T.O.-Process Church. One such candidate was found in Charlie Manson, who was first recruited by Scientology before he joined the Process Church. At that time the Process Church in America was led by Robert Moore (alias Robert DeGrimston), who, like Manson, was first a Scientologist. Process members worship both Satan and Christ, as did the Priory of Sion and the Templars in medieval days.⁴²

Charlie Manson taught his "family" that he was Jesus Christ returned to bring judgement on America through a race war. "Helter Skelter" was his plan. He believed his instructions were concealed in the lyrics of songs sung by The Beatles.⁴³ What Manson taught his "family" about hidden messages in rock music may well be true. Aleister Crowley himself taught such a technique to his initiates - that of writing messages backwards as a means of secret communication.

William Sutton, in The New Age Movement and The Illuminati 666. states that Manson was also a Freemason. In support of this he writes that "[d]uring the Tate-LaBianca trials - with Susan Atkins testifying to how good it felt when the knife went into Sharon Tate - Manson was flashing Masonic hand signals to the Judge."⁴⁴ Sutton not only links Manson to Freemasonry, but to Scientology, the Process Church, the O.T.O. and the New Age Movement.⁴⁵

Likewise, Maury Terry documents that the Charlie Manson murders in California and the David Berkowitz - Son of Sam - murders in New York, were both ordered by the same organization, the O.T.O.-Process Church.⁴⁶ One of Terry's first clues of this connection was the use of common terms by Berkowitz's "Sam" cult and the O.T.O.-Process Church. For example, the term "German shepherds" was used by both as an allusion to their Nazi heritage. Both killers wore the same Nazi symbols - HT and HH for Hitler, the German SS lightning bolts for Satan and 666 for the mark of the beast. Both were white Aryan, anti-Christian, anti-black, and anti-Semitic.⁴⁷

Berkowitz, whose murders followed some six years after Manson's, often mentioned Manson in his notes. Berkowitz himself admitted to joining the Process Church in New York in 1975, just six years after Manson's arrest. Process members openly mingling with existing O.T.O. factions were seen in New York City as late as 1973. People such as Berkowitz, Manson and members of the Process Church, and its cells around the United States, make up the current O.T.O. network. All are sub-Masonic and linked as part of an underground web of murder. The "Sam" cult, according to Terry, is headquartered near Los Angeles and has branches in Bismarck, Minot, Houston and New York. These branches shuttle killers and "contracts" back and forth.⁴⁸

From evidence presented by both Terry and Sutton, there is sufficient documentation to convince the reader that the Ordo Templi Orientis was carried to the United States by English Freemason Aleister Crowley for the express purpose of preparing Christian America for destruction through mass and serial murder, drugs, licentious living, witchcraft, and the psychological terror and social chaos caused by the same. The O.T.O. continues its assault on our society to this day. The O.T.O. is English Freemasonry's psychological warfare unit targeted against Christian America.

O.T.O., Mother of the New Age

The O.T.O. membership was so vast that the Order boasted having knowledge of all the secrets of occultism on both sides of the English Channel. Miller reports that after Karl Kellner founded the O.T.O., the organization produced a manifesto called Manifesto of the O.T.O. Under the heading "Liber III" is proof that all Masonic and non-Masonic occult orders were under its direct control:

Karl Keliner revived the exoteric⁴⁹ organization of the O.T.O. and initiated the plan now happily complete of bringing all occult bodies again under one governance.... The order is international, and has existing branches in every civilized country of the world.

In its bosom repose the Great Mysteries; its brain has resolved all the problems of philosophy and life. Moreover, it possesses a Secret capable of realizing the world-old dream of the Brotherhood of Man.⁵⁰

The "Secret" it possessed, and is now manifesting, is the program followed by the New Age Movement. From this point we are able to trace the present New Age Movement to Freemasonry.

Female Freemasons and the New Age Movement

All European Masonic Orders, including the French Grand Orient and many of the British Masonic sub-orders, permitted female membership. Two of the most renowned female Masons were Helena Petrovna Blavatsky and her protegee' Annie Besant.⁵¹ Miller has stated that the names of women members of the O.T.O. are never divulged publicly. It is assumed, however, that Besant was an initiate, since she was frequently seen in the company of O.T.O. male membership. Miller did find mention of Blavatsky in Freemasonry Universal, Volume V, part 2, "Autumn Equinox," 1929, an O.T.O. publication which states: "Madame Blavatsky's masonic [sic] certificate in the Ancient and Primitive Rite of Masonry was issued in the year 1877."⁵² This fact is also confirmed in Mackey's Encyclopedia of Freemasonry.⁵³

At the end of the nineteenth century, when English Freemasonry established front organizations to act as conduits of Masonic thought, Madame Blavatsky's Theosophical Society had already been flourishing since 1875. We have seen earlier how Blavatsky had come under the influence and teachings of Joseph Mazzini, who encouraged her to put her revolutionary beliefs into practice by fighting alongside Italian Freemason Garibaldi. Many Masons joined her society, including Albert Pike. The Society, however, was open to Lucifer worshipping non-Masons as well.⁵⁴

In 1887, one year after the Quatuor Coronati Research Lodge was founded, Blavatsky settled in London and started a Theosophical magazine called Lucifer the Light-bringer. While in London she also published two books - Secret Doctrine and Isis Unveiled. Annie Besant was presented to Madame Blavatsky in 1889 by the socialist, Freemason Herbert Burrows. Besant immediately succumbed to Blavatsky's irresistible magnetism and formidable power of suggestion. After Blavatsky died on May 8, 1891, members in the Theosophical Society battled over leadership for the next sixteen years. Finally, in 1907, at the behest of Freemason Sir Walter Besant, the Quatuor Coronati Lodge appointed his sister, Annie Besant, as President.

Miss Besant was affiliated with a number of sub-Masonic societies and fronts, such as the Fabian Society, the O.T.O. and Aleister Crowley's Masonic Stella Matutina. She had joined the Stella Matutina after it splintered from the Golden Dawn. The two orders were again united in 1912 under the original name Golden Dawn. At that time, Aleister Crowley was one of its leaders. That same year Crowley was initiated into the O.T.O. In 1913 a schism in Besant's Theosophical Society occurred, resulting in 33rd degree Freemason Rudolph Steiner founding the Anthroposophical Society, which also was Luciferian.⁵⁵ Steiner's society became the first link between the Bolshevik Revolution and Freemasonry.⁵⁶

Besant's Masonic assignment in the Theosophical Society was to find a world leader. Not only was she to find him, but prepare him as the Christ Lord Maitreya - and then announce his coming. Her first attempt in 1908 met with failure. Her second try was better known. On December 28, 1911, a 16-year-old Hindu boy was allegedly found to be possessed by the spirit of Krishna and the Christ. In 1926 the Society presented him as Krishnamurti, the "World Teacher." Thirty-third degree Mason C.W. Leadbeater, a

Masonic author at the turn of the century, was selected to train Krishnamurti as Messiah.⁵⁷

In the 1920s, when Annie Besant was introducing to the world the Christ Lord Maitreya in the body of Krishnamurti, there was heavy drug consumption in her tent meetings. The London Patriot, August 29, 1929, reported that "this drug, according to some occultists, [was] one of the most powerful in 'liberating the spirit from the body.'"⁵⁸

Besant's second attempt, however, also failed when in 1929 Krishnamurti became bored with the scheme and retired.⁵⁹ By then Hitler's star was on the rise, and the New Agers were looking to him as their redeemer.⁶⁰

Funding the New Age Movement: The Lucis Trust

Another follower of Madame Blavatsky and member of the Theosophical Society was Alice Bailey. Bailey, a self-proclaimed witch whose husband was a Freemason, founded in 1922 the Lucifer Publishing Company of New York, which name has since been changed to Lucis mist to disguise its real origins and identity. (Lucis is Latin for Lucifer.) Lucifer Publishing marketed Bailey's first book, Initiation Humcm and Solar.⁶¹ Later she published Externalization of the Hierarchy, in which she claimed the hierarchy in Freemasonry was responsible for the New Age Movement. She said the "work of destruction" [social destabilization] began in the year 1775.-'62

Bailey was probably referring to the Illuminati. Seventy years later Albert Pike revived the conspiracy in the Palladian. At the turn of the century the hierarchy became domiciled in the O.T.O. Today the hierarchy resides in Bailey's Lucis Trust. In 1982 Lucis Trust was headquartered at 866 United Nations Plaza, Suite 566/7, New York, NY 10017-1888. It has since moved to another location in New York. At its helm in 1982 was Freemason Robert S. McNamara, Secretary of Defense under Kennedy and past president of the World Bank. Today McNamara meets regularly with the World Federalist Movement to read Blavatsky and Besant. On a clear midnight he is noted for bathing in moonbeams.⁶³

A few other prominent members of Lucis Trust are David Rockefeller, major stockholder in Chase Manhattan Bank and Exxon; his brother John D. Rockefeller iv; an avowed Buddhist; Cyrus Vance, Secretary of State under Jimmy Carter; Rabbi Marc Tannebaum, head of the American Jewish Committee; the Marshall Field family; Anglican Bishop Paul Moore, founder of a school of witchcraft in the Anglican Church of St. John the Divine, New York; Walter Cronkite, retired news anchor of CBS News; Ted Turner, owner of Cable News Network, who promotes the Church of Scientology on his network; and Barbara Marx Hubbard, a prominent speaker for the New Age Movement and the once-considered-running-mate of Presidential candidate Walter Mondale. Last, but not least, is 33rd degree Freemason Henry Clausen, Past Supreme Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, Southern Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Freemasonry.⁶⁴

The Lucis Trust also accepts corporate memberships. Among them are the following prestigious organizations: the Rockefeller Foundation, the Carnegie Endowment Fund, the United Nations Association, the Theosophical Order of Service, the Findhorn Foundation, Greenpeace USA, Greenpeace UK, Amnesty International, and the Southern Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Freemasonry. 65

Under McNamara's administration, Lucis Trust paid for a full-page ad promoting the New Age in Reader's Digest, October 1982, page 203. In December 1991 Reader's Digest ran the ad again on page 201. Both ads are reproduced in Appendix 2, Fig. 11. Deceptively written to appeal to all religions, the ads contain the New Age prayer to bring in Lord Maitreya, the New Age Christ.

With such corporate and individual wealth at its disposal the New Age Movement can easily buy multi-million dollar advertising across the nation. The Lucis Trust has undoubtedly taken the place of Weisshaupt's Illuminati, Pike's Palladian and Kellner's O.T.O. Its dominant position and purpose are identical to the previous three.

The Lucis Trust has sponsored many Masonic programs, such as the now defunct television talk show, "Faith Focus" of Dallas, Texas. During the period that Faith Focus was on the air (1982-1985), advertising at program breaks was identical to the Reader's Digest ad - the prayer to bring in Lord Maitreya.

Host of "Faith Focus" was Freemason Rev. Walker Railey, a Methodist minister. In 1987 the city of Dallas was shocked when Railey was suspected of strangling his wife. Finally, in September 1992 he was arrested and is now awaiting trial.

In 1987, as Railey was preparing his alibi, he admitted in a recording of being attacked by demons, a not unusual occurrence with those who tamper with the occult.⁶⁶ Alice Bailey would be proud of this "earth purifier."

In reference to the Lucis Trust, Bailey states in Externalization of the Hierarchy, that Freemasonry "will meet the need of those who can, and should wield power." She further informs us that Masonry is the "seat of initiation" and "under the All-Seeing Eye the work can go forward."⁶⁷

The various divines and gurus of the New Age continue to announce the arrival of the world teacher and proclaim the movement's Luciferian doctrines. Among them, Benjamin Creme, a New Age guru, writes in Share International, that "Freemasonry, as one of the Paths to Initiation, will be open to all those men and women who fit themselves for entry to the New Age." Creme is today the Masonic New Age Movement's torch-bearer for the emergence of "Maitreya the Christ" Apparently the Movement has found another body for their "World Teacher" to possess.

Another New Age leader, David Spangler, is author of Reflection on the Christ. In this book he, too, proclaims the Masonic Luciferian Doctrine:

When man entered upon the pathway to self, he entered into a great creative adventure.. of learning the meaning of divinity by accepting to himself the responsibility of a microcosmic world unto whom he is the god.... The being that helps man to reach this point is Lucifer.. .the angel of man's evolution.. the spirit of light in the microcosmic world.⁶⁹

Spangler goes on to blasphemously state that "Christ is the same force as Lucifer." Finally he says:

Lucifer prepares man for the experience of Christhood... [he is] the great Initiator... Lucifer works within each of us to bring us to wholeness, and as we move into a New Age.. .each of us in some way is brought to that point which I term the Luciferic Initiation.. that many people now, and in the days ahead, will be facing, for it is an initiation into the new age.⁷⁰

Finally, 33rd degree Mason Manly P. Hall, one of the first New Age speakers in America, has informed the occult world of the power of the Blue Lodge Mason. In The Lost Keys of Freemasonry, Manly wrote, "The seething energies of Lucifer are in his hands... "⁷¹

Freemasonry's New Age fronts have expanded to such magnitude that there are now over 10,000 affiliates in the United States alone ,⁷² all controlled directly or indirectly by Freemasonry. As far back as 1930, Stoddard explained the Masonic purpose behind these New Age fronts:

Secretly here and there individuals are prepared; these again form groups or centres from which influences spread until they form a veritable magnetic network covering the entire world. Like rays from a hidden sun these groups are apparently divergent and detached, but in reality all issue from the same central body. Studying all these different groups and movements the system is seen to be an insidious and secret dissemination of ideas, orienting and creating the required outlook on life, etc., eventually breaking down all barriers of family, religion, morality, nationality, and all self-initiated thought, always under the cloak of a new and more modern religion, new thought, new morality, a new heaven and a new earth; until it evolves a gigantic robot merely answering to the will and commands of a secret Master Mind.⁷³

The secret "Master Mind" controlling Freemasonry today is, of course, Satan through the Lucis mist. In its hierarchy are members of the Supreme Council of the 33rd degree. Rev. Jim Shaw, a former 33rd degree Mason, tells how the Supreme Council controls this network of occult fronts: "Every thirty-third degree Supreme Council member carries a certificate allowing him presiding entry into all occult bodies in the world."⁷⁴ These high Masons are titled "Sovereign Grand Inspectors General." They quietly move in and out of thousands of front societies to "inspect" them, insuring that Masonry's goal of establishing a one-world government, ruled over by its own created false Christ, is on track.

Freemasonry had an Inspector General on hand during the United Nations' New Age University of Peace conference held on the Island of Malta, March 2-7, 1985. The theme of the conference was "Spirit of Peace." The Inspector General was 33rd degree Prince Bernhardt of the Netherlands, one of the most powerful Masons in the world. Bernhardt is known to conspiracy researchers as the founder of the Bildebergers, precursor of the Trilateral Commission.

Also present at this gathering was Marilyn Fergusson, author of The Aquarian Conspiracy. The fourteenth Dalai Lama of Tibet, "His Holiness" Tenzin Gyatso, was there. Coretta Scott King, wife of the late Martin Luther King and a leading proponent of world peace was registered as a guest. Robert Muller, assistant Secretary General of the U.N. and member of the Board of Planetary Citizens, was at the conference. It was Muller, in 1982, who said, "The Human person and planetary citizenship must be given absolute priority over national citizen ship." Freemason Desmond Tutu, Nobel Peace Prize winner in 1984, was also hobnobbing with the occult elite on Malta.⁷⁵

Tutu is the Anglican Bishop of South Africa. He was deliberately elevated to his position by the Anglican Church in London, so that he could be ready and in place to foment revolution while hiding behind his clerical robes. "This should not surprise our readers," writes the editor of World Economic Review, "since it is a well known fact that the Anglican Church leadership in England is riddled with 33rd degree Freemasons. Thus we can now tell you that it was NOT the people of the Anglican Church who gave Tutu his position, it was the Mason-riddled hierarchy inside the Anglican Church that did so."⁷⁶

A branch of the Anglican Church in America is the Episcopal Church. It too is controlled by English Freemasonry. The World Economic Review reports that Lucis Trust member, Bishop Paul Moore of the Episcopal Church of St. John The Divine in New York City, "runs several witchcraft schools on Long Island, the most notable being the Foxfire school. Moore is controlled by the ultra-secret Masonic Quatuor Coronati Lodge in London, which always has as a 'Member of Forty' the head of the Anglican Church."⁷⁷

The Great "Falling Away" in America

How successful has Freemasonry been in furthering her New Age philosophy in the United States? The answer is given in the Omega Letter which calls the New Age Movement the fastest growing religious belief system in the United States today. The Omega-Letter quotes an article on a recent American Health magazine survey which revealed that 69 percent of Americans claim to believe some or all of the New Age Movement's central teachings.⁷⁸

Scripture of course prophesies this apostasy. The apostle Paul wrote in II Thessalonians 2:1 & 3: "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first..."

The Greek word for "falling away" is apostasia, from where we receive our English word apostasy. Strong's Concordance defines it as a "defection from truth."⁷⁹ Christ will not return until after there is a "defection from truth."

Christian brother in Freemasonry, you are in fellowship with an order that has caused the great "falling away." And according to Scripture, Jesus Christ will return soon afterward. Before His return He is calling you out of Freemasonry. Hear His voice in Revelation 18:4: "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues."
